Reading II - River at Dawn

Use this reading for questions 1 to 2.

At dawn the river is a road that moves, carrying leaves and light downstream.

I stand on the bank and watch my own reflection break and reform with the current.

Nothing stays in one shape for long, and that, I think, is the river's honest lesson.

What I was last year has loosened its hold, and I am still learning how to flow.

1 According to Reading II, what does the speaker notice about the river?

- A the river never changes
- B the river is frozen solid
- C the river is always moving and changing shape
- D the river flows uphill
