Reading II - A Victory Garden and Ration Coupons, 1943

Use this reading for questions 1 to 2.

Mother keeps a small victory garden behind our house, and we eat what we grow when we can. Sugar, butter, and meat come with coupons now, and she plans meals around what the coupons allow that week.

My older brother is overseas with the Canadian army. At school we collect scrap metal and buy war savings stamps. Mother says everyone at home has a part in the war effort, even if we never leave our town.
