Reading I - A Coat at a Dance

Use this reading for questions 1 to 2.

At a school dance, Dana picked up a coat that looked exactly like her own and walked out wearing it. On the bus home she checked the pocket, found a student card with another name on it, and realized the coat was not hers. She decided to keep the coat anyway because she liked it.

The next day the coat owner reported the coat missing. Dana was questioned by police and admitted that she had kept the coat after learning it belonged to someone else.
