Reading I - A Berlin Letter, 1919

Use this reading for questions 1 to 3.

Our city is quiet now, but the quiet is angry. The treaty signed at Versailles blames us alone for the war, takes land from us, cuts our army to a small force, and demands payments we cannot afford.

Men in the cafes say the treaty is not peace but punishment. I fear this anger will not fade. A settlement that humiliates a whole people may plant the seeds of another war.

- A Berlin resident, in an invented letter, 1919
