Source I - A Letter Home, 1917

Use this reading for questions 1 to 3.

We have waited for days in tunnels under the ridge, listening to our own guns. This morning, for the first time, all four Canadian divisions attacked together, side by side. By nightfall we held the ridge, but the ground was covered with men who will not go home.

People at home will hear that Vimy was a victory. They should also know what it cost. I am proud of what we did together, and I grieve for the friends I lost doing it.

- A Canadian soldier, in a letter home, April 1917 (invented source)

Source II - A Peacekeeper Writes Home, 1957

Use this reading for questions 16 to 17.

We wear blue helmets now, not the uniforms of a battle. Our job is to stand between two armies that have stopped shooting but have not yet made peace. Some days we patrol a road. Other days we guard a food convoy so that families in a village can eat.

It is strange work. We carry rifles, but our best tool is patience. If we do our job well, nothing happens, and that quiet is the whole point.
