Source I - A Factory Worker in the 1800s

Use this reading for question 10.

We rise before dawn and work long hours beside loud machines. The air is thick, and children work near dangerous belts. Our pay is low, and if a worker is hurt, there is little help. Some of us have begun meeting together to ask for shorter hours and safer work.

10 Based on Source I, what problem of early industrialization is described?

- A A shortage of factories
- B Harsh and unsafe factory working conditions
- C A lack of machines
- D Too much farmland
