Source I - A Factory Inspector Report

Use this reading for question 10.

In a large city factory, children as young as ten work long days beside dangerous machines. The rooms are crowded, the air is poor, and there is no safe exit if fire breaks out. Reformers argue that the law must limit hours, set a minimum age for work, and require fire escapes and clean workplaces.

10

Which group worked for safer factories shorter hours and an end to child labor during the Progressive Era?

A Trusts

B Railroad owners

C Foreign diplomats

D Labor reformers and unions
