Source I - A Merchant on the Silk Road

Use this reading for question 25.

We travel in a caravan for safety, and at each oasis town we trade silk for spices, glass, and horses. Guards protect the goods, and local rulers charge a toll for safe passage. A journey that takes months can still earn a profit because goods that are common in one land are rare in another.

25 Based on Source I, why did merchants travel in caravans on the Silk Road?

- A To avoid paying any tolls
- B To travel faster than ships
- C To hide from customers
- D For safety while moving valuable goods over long distances
