Reading I - A Bike and a Broken Promise

Use this reading for questions 1 to 3.

Last spring, Maya lent her bicycle to a neighbour, who promised to return it in one week. The neighbour kept it for two months, rode it every day, and returned it with a broken wheel. Maya asked the neighbour to pay for the repair, and the neighbour refused.

Maya went to small claims court, where a judge heard both sides and ordered the neighbour to pay for the repair. Maya told her friend that this was different from a criminal case she had seen on television, where the police laid a charge and the accused could go to jail.

1 The main idea of Reading I is that a dispute over a borrowed bike can be a civil matter, different from a

- A criminal case where the state lays a charge
- B traffic ticket for parking only
- C contract that nobody signed
- D case with no judge at all
